

AN ACT

To amend section 5301.057 of the Revised Code to provide that a transfer fee for purposes of a transfer fee covenant does not include any payment required pursuant to a conservation easement or agricultural easement, to authorize the conveyance of the water rights of certain state-owned real estate to the Wayne County Board of County Commissioners, and to authorize the conveyance of state-owned real estate in Richland County to the Mansfield Reformatory Preservation Society.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio:

SECTION 1. That section 5301.057 of the Revised Code be amended to read as follows:

Sec. 5301.057. (A) As used in this section:

(1) "Environmental covenant" means a

(a) A servitude that imposes activity and use limitations on real property and meets the requirements of section 5301.82 of the Revised Code;

(b) A conservation easement or agricultural easement as defined in section 5301.67 of the Revised Code.

(2) "Transfer" means the sale, gift, conveyance, assignment, inheritance, or other transfer of an ownership interest in real property located in this state.

(3) "Transfer fee" means a fee or charge required by a transfer fee covenant and payable upon the transfer of an interest in real property, or payable for the right to make or accept such a transfer, regardless of whether the fee or charge is a fixed amount or is determined as a percentage of the value of the property, the purchase price, or other consideration given for the transfer. The following are not transfer fees for purposes of this section:

(a) Any consideration payable by the grantee to the grantor for the interest in real property being transferred. For the purposes of division (A)(3)(a) of this section, an interest in real property includes a separate mineral estate and its appurtenant surface access rights.

(b) Any commission payable to a licensed real estate broker for the transfer of real property pursuant to an agreement between the broker and the grantor or the grantee, including any subsequent additional commission for that transfer payable by the grantor or the grantee based upon any subsequent appreciation, development, or sale of real property;

(c) Any interest, charges, fees, or other amounts payable by a borrower to a lender pursuant to a loan secured by a mortgage against real property;

(d) Any rent, reimbursement, charge, fee, or other amount payable by a lessee to a lessor under a lease;

(e) Any consideration payable to the holder of an option to purchase an interest in real property or the holder of a right of first refusal or first offer to purchase an interest in real property for waiving, releasing, or not exercising the option or right upon the transfer of the property to another person;

(f) Any tax, fee, charge, assessment, fine, or other amount payable to or imposed by a governmental authority;

(g) Any fee, charge, assessment, fine, or other amount payable to a homeowners, condominium, cooperative, mobile home, or property owners association pursuant to a declaration or covenant or law applicable to the association;

(h) Any payment required pursuant to an environmental covenant.

(4) "Transfer fee covenant" means a declaration or covenant recorded against the title to real property that requires or purports to require the payment of a transfer fee to the declarant or other person specified in the declaration or covenant or to their successors or assigns upon a subsequent transfer of an interest in the real property.

(B) A transfer fee covenant recorded in this state on or after ~~the effective date of this section~~ September 13, 2010, does not run with the title to real property and is not binding on or enforceable against any subsequent owner, purchaser, or mortgagee of any interest in real property as an equitable servitude or otherwise.

(C) Any lien purporting to secure the payment of a transfer fee under a transfer fee covenant that is recorded in this state on or after ~~the effective date of this section~~ September 13, 2010, is void.

SECTION 2. That existing section 5301.057 of the Revised Code is hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. (A) The Governor is authorized to execute a deed in the name of the state conveying to the Wayne County Board of County

Commissioners, and its successors and assigns, the water rights in the following described real estate (hereinafter referred to as the "premises") as retained by the state in the deed filed on August 2, 1995, in the Official Record, Volume 720, Page 772, of the Wayne County Recorder's Office:

In preparing the deed, the Auditor of State, with the assistance of the Attorney General, may modify the foregoing descriptions insofar as necessary to bring each one into conformity with the actual bounds of the real estate being described.

(B) Conveyance of the premises to the Wayne County Board of County Commissioners shall be upon such consideration as shall be determined by the Director of Administrative Services to be fair and reasonable.

(C) The Wayne County Board of County Commissioners shall pay all costs associated with the purchase and conveyance of the premises, which costs shall include, but are not limited to, the following: surveying costs, title costs, preparation of metes and bounds property descriptions, appraisals, and recordation costs of the deed.

(D) The deed may contain any terms and conditions the Director determines to be in the best interest of the state. The deed may contain restrictions that the Director determines are reasonably necessary to protect the state's interest in any of its remaining interests in the premises, including its gas and mineral rights.

(E) Upon receipt of the consideration, the Auditor of State, with the assistance of the Attorney General, shall prepare a deed to the premises. The deed shall state the consideration, and also shall state any terms or conditions and any restrictions. The deed shall be executed by the Governor in the name of the state, countersigned by the Secretary of State, sealed with the Great Seal of the State of Ohio, presented in the Office of the Auditor of State for recording, and delivered to the Wayne County Board of County Commissioners. The Board shall present the deed for recording in the Office of the Wayne County Recorder.

(F) This section expires two years after its effective date.

SECTION 4. (A) The Governor is authorized to execute a Deed in the name of the state conveying to the Mansfield Reformatory Preservation Society, its successors and assigns, all of the state's right, title, and interest in the following described real estate (hereinafter referred to as the "state premises"):

Situated in the Township of Madison, County of Richland, State of Ohio and being a part of the Northeast Quarter of Section 15, Township 21, Range 18 and being more particularly described as follows:

(C) The conveyance from the state to the grantee is subject to the following restrictions:

(1) The grantee agrees that it shall not use or develop the state premises such that it will interfere with the quiet enjoyment of the neighboring state-owned land.

(2) The grantee shall use, develop, and occupy the state premises for historic preservation purposes only, including a parking lot, public tours, and other uses incidental to these purposes. If the grantee ceases to use the state premises for these purposes, all right, title, and interest in the state premises revert back to the state, at the state's discretion, and without the need for any further action by the state. If reversion of the state premises takes place, title to the land described in division (B) of this section simultaneously reverts back to the grantee.

(D) Upon receipt of the consideration, the Auditor of State, with the assistance of the Attorney General, shall prepare a deed to the state premises. The deed shall state the restrictions in division (C) of this section. The deed shall be executed by the Governor in the name of the state, countersigned by the Secretary of State, sealed with the Great Seal of the State, presented in the Office of the Auditor of State for recording, and delivered to the grantee. The grantee shall present the deed for recording in the Office of the Richland County Recorder.

(E) The grantee shall pay all costs associated with the purchase and conveyance of the state premises, as well as all costs associated with the sale and conveyance of the real estate described in division (B) of this section, which costs include, but are not limited to, the following: surveying costs; title costs; preparation of metes and bounds property descriptions; appraisals; environmental studies, assessments, and remediation; and recordation costs.

(F) This section expires two years after its effective date.
